General Information:

All board meetings will be posted in a timely fashion on the Horsemen's Run Web site and on the entrance marquee along with a contact number. Please call this number to find out where and when the meetings are taking place. Please come! We'd love your input.

Our Community web site is located at www.horsemensrun.org , please become a member. Here you will find the covenants, board meeting minutes, calendar of events and other pertinent information regarding our community.

Annual Assessments have been mailed to all homeowner's and remain at $600 dollars. The due date is March 31, 2011.

Our Architectural Review Committee is looking for people to assist. If you are interested, please contact Glenda Smith.

Neighborhood Watch: On Saturday, January 29th from 12p-2pm, the Fayette County Sheriff's Dept. will be fingerprinting children or any elders who you think might need to have fingerprinted, for example, an elder with Alzheimer's or dementia. This will take place at the Holland residence at 215 Addison Drive, 770-716-9833. This was done about two years ago and is a very important piece of information to have if your loved one goes missing. If you wish to be added to the email distribution list for all criminal activity that is going on in the area or neighborhood, please send an email to nanceinfla@yahoo.com.

Social Committee: We are looking for some people who would be interested in assisting with events in the neighborhood. New ideas are always welcome! Please contact Nancy Holland.

Upcoming Events are as follows: Please mark your calendars. Info will be posted prior to the event.

April 16th- Easter Egg Hunt

June 1st – Anticipated pool opening
